president would not attend the funeral services in Cleveland, much as he would like to pay that last tribute to his dear friend, but he would attend the state funeral to be held tomorrow in the senate chamber. It was agreed by all that it would be inadvisable for the president to go to Cleveland. Secretaries Taft, Cortelyou, and Wilson, however, will go to Cleveland to attend the services there. Postmaster-General Payne desires also to go, but his physicians have advised him not to make the trip. That advice he has con cluded to follow.
